UNITY – a unique living and working concept

Sodexo and Sodexo Circles Concierge are partners with UNITY, who’s unique living concept gathers everything you might wish for, all under the same roof. The innovative concept will considerably facilitate the lives of the people who choose to live and work at UNITY’s modern housing solutions, regardless if they are living there for a shorter or longer period of time.

The needs, expectations and lifestyles of humans are rapidly changing in the modern society of today. UNITY has taken note of this by launching a brand new concept, which offers smart and flexible housing solutions. The traditional apartment has been modified to a compressed housing- and living space in the concept design. And all amenities a resident might need, are within reach in the housing area or adjacent to it.

UNITY Hammarby Sjöstad will be rolled out in the beginning of this autumn. Sodexo and Sodexo Circles have been appointed the assignment to run the exciting business, which is focusing on sustainability and flexibility in a pleasant, inspiring and beautiful environment, developed and designed in collaboration with the well-known British designer Tom Dixon and his Design Research Studio.

UNITY Hammarby Sjöstad offers 140 well designed studio apartments and 150 office spaces, consisting of private offices as well as coworking spaces. There is also a cafeteria where climate calculated meals will be offered, a lounge, a gym and inspiring workshops and commUNITY events will be arranged on a regular basis. The concept will also be rolled out at six other locations in the Nordics over the next two years.

“Sodexo and Sodexo Circles collaboration with UNITY means that we will run the operation of the business. This is a creative partnership, where we have created innovative and sustainable solutions for the future work and existence together with UNITY. In order to create the best experience for our guests and also exceed their expectations, it is required from both parties to constantly look up, think ahead and work with continuous improvement. For us, this is a new way of delivering services. We are proud and excited to be part of building a new trademark and concept, which is setting a new quality standard for service on the market and everyday life, says Anil Ramel Singh”, CEO Circles Sweden Sodexo Group.
"In the old Transformer factory building, we have created a contemporary urban concept, adapted to both smart living and a creative working life for everyone with demand for flexibility, high design and a great location. UNITY Hammarby Sjöstad offers everything under one roof and we want UNITY to be a natural meeting place with interesting events and commUNITY meetings. Being a part of the Hammarby Sjöstad district’s climate strategy is something we are really passionate about, since it’s fully in line with our environmental and social core values”, concludes Charlotte Mangborg, General Manager at UNITY Hammarby Sjöstad.
